WHAT TO BRING

- Photo identification (for you and your spouse, if filing jointly)
- Social Security cards or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) for yourself, your spouse, and each person to be claimed on your return
- Birth dates for every person on the return
- W-2 forms for all jobs held in 2017
- All 1099 forms, including income received from unemployment (1099-G), social security (1099-SSA), pension payments (1099-R), bank account interest (1099-INT), and dividends (1099-DIV)
- Form 1095 A, B, or C with health insurance information if you received it
- Health insurance exemption certificate if you have one
- A list of who on your tax return had health insurance for 2017 and for which months they were covered
- If you paid for childcare: Total expenses and name, address, and tax ID number of provider(s)
- If anyone on your tax return is in post-secondary education: Record of tuition payments (1098-T), a student account statement from the financial aid office, and receipts for required books.
- If you own your home: Mortgage interest statement and property tax receipts
- Local tax forms or any tax booklets you've received in the mail
- Anything that says "This is important for your taxes"
- A copy of last year's tax return (not necessary, but helpful)
- Final 2017 pay stubs from each job if available (not required)
- If you're Married Filing Jointly, you'll need to bring your spouse to sign your tax documents
- Savings account information (routing and account numbers) if interested in saving all or part of refund
- Your checkbook to see the routing and account number for direct deposit. This will help you to get your refund faster! Or, let us know if you would like to open a PNC debit card, which would arrive in 5-7 days.
